(5) 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 16, 27, 28, 29 + 31 are conveyance allowances + 18 is a fixed travelling allowance. These may be classified under 'a compensatory allowance other than a house allowance'.

3, 5, 24 are given on account of the high cost of living; 17 given in lieu of fixed travelling allowance; ~~a fixed travelling allowance~~; 25, 26 being given on account of food & clothing respectively: all these may also be brought under 'a compensatory allowance other than a house allowance'.

(1) Should be classified under 'a house allowance'

10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22 + 23 should be classified as 'special pay' as they are granted in consideration of a specific addition to the work or responsibility. The Residency Surgeon says that 22 + 23 should be treated as 'a compensatory allowance other than a house allowance' for the reason that they have not been declared

(3) also granted because (1) conveyance necessity (2) debarred for earning C.A. (3) high cost of living in Rs 1000: vide explanation cited earlier in this note.

declared as 'remunerative'. As a thorough and general classification of all the allowances is now taking place, it seems preferable to classify 22 & 23 as 'special pay'

30 has to be treated as personal pay as it is a temporary addition to pay given pending a permanent increase in the pay itself.

If approved, the Govt of India may be informed as above. Submitted for orders

I have gone through all the papers put up and consider that the classifications proposed in the office note are correct & may be accepted.

In addressing India we should in every case quote their own sanctioning the various allowances. for this with enable them to judge the correctness of our proposed classifications. For instance the old "duty" allowance & "remunerative" local allowance correspond to "special pay" under the which was under the control of the Residency Surgeon, was transferred to the Municipal Commission its cost is as usual shared between Assigned Tract & Municipal revenues in proportion of $\frac{3}{4}$ths to $\frac{1}{4}$ respectively. The Resident still retains full control of plague operations and sanction for ~~its~~ retention of establishment year after year is asked for from him.

The pensions & gratuities granted to those whose services were dispensed with on account of the reconstitution of the plague dept: is debited to the Revenues of the Bangalore Assigned Tract & to those of the Municipality in the proportion of $\frac{3}{4}$ths & $\frac{1}{4}$. On this analogy it is presumed that $\frac{3}{4}$ths of pensions of the Sub Asst: Surgeons & the plague nurse will be debited to the revenues of the Assigned Tract. So it seems better to include these items in the statement.

Subject:- Treatment of compensatory allowances under the fundamental rules.

The fundamental rules, which were sent to you with my letter No.1079-C.S.R., dated the 26th October 1921, have reclassed as special pay, and therefore as a part of pay proper, all local allowances hitherto granted on account of the unhealthiness of a locality in which work is performed.

2. Again, the supplementary rules made by the Governor General in Council under fundamental rules 44 and 93 make a distinction between the treatment to be accorded to a house allowance and to any other form of compensatory allowance.

(1) Special pay,

(2) a house allowance, or

(3) a compensatory allowance other than a house allowance.

Reasons should be assigned for the classification adopted in each case.

The Secretary to the Hon'ble The Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to your No.1606/201-04 dated 14-2-22, I have the honor to state that there is only one post under me which is affected, viz., the post of Sub-Assistant Inspector, Civil and Military Station, in so far as the post carries a local allowance. A brief Histroy of how the local allowance originated is as follows:---

Prior to 1-4-1904, there was a Sub Deputy Inspector in this Station getting Rs.50/-. His work was confined only to the Elementary Schools. In order to get persons of University qualifications for this post, the pay of the Sub Deputy was raised to Rs.75/- with effect from 1-4-1904 and the designation was changed to the "Sub-Assistant Inspector of Schools" (Vide letter No.403 I-A /28-1-1904). Though a graduate was got on Rs.75/- for this post, yet he had no prospects in this station and so the continuance of the highly qualified persons in this post was found to be doubtful. So proposals were submitted to include this appointment in the cadre of the Madras Sub Assistant Inspectors on condition that a pay of Rs.75/- and a local allowance of Rs.25/- in lieu of the fixed travelling allowance drawn by the Madras Sub Assistant Inspectors were paid by the Local Government from the Assigned-Tract Funds. (Vide G.O.No.423 dated 3-7-1907 of the Madras Government and No.4798-I-A/16-12-1907 of the Government of India-Foreign Department).

Since no travelling in the Technical Sense is involved here, this station being municipal area, the allowance was not styled the fixed Travelling Allowance but a local allowance. This allowance was declared to be a compensatory local allowance, since it was represented by the Local Government to the Government of India that the refusal to give the same, destroyed the possibility of including the appointment in the Madras cadre, in as much as without such an allowance the post of the Sub Assistant Inspector in Bangalore would be less attractive than the corresponding appointments in Madras with the result that it would not be practicable to transfer Sub-Assistant Inspector from Madras to Bangalor (Please Vide Para 2 of the letter No.6938/11-11-07 from the F.A.R. to the Secretary to the Government of India India, Foreign Department). This local allowance of Rs.25/- sanctioned in 1907 was raised to Rs.35/- on the ground that the cost of travelling or the cost of maintaining a conveyance has increased during the last few years. (Please Vide letter No.1356 dated 16-2-20 from the Resident in Mysore to the Political Secretary to the Government of India and the sanction of the Government of India conveyed in their Memorandum No.911-Est-A/4-3-1920).

This allowance has been granted as a compensatory measure to cover the fixed Travelling Allowance given to the Sub-Assistant Inspectors in the Madras Presidency. It is not intended to cover the higher cost of living at Bangalore. Neither is it paid of in lieu of any house-rent or personal allowances.

This cannot be classified as special pay, since it has not been given in consideration of

(a) The specially arduous nature of the duties; or

(b) a specific addition to the work or responsibility; or

(c) The unhealthiness of the locality, in which the work is performed.

It is not a house allowance, since Sub-Assistant Inspectors are not provided with quarters like Sub-Assistant Surgeons in the Medical Department. Thus it has to be classified only as a "Compensatory Alowance" other than a house allowance, which has been defined as an allowance granted to meet personal expenditure necessitated by the special circumstances in which duty is performed and which also includes a travelling allowance (Please Vide 9(5)-Page 2 of the Fundamental Rules.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Inspector of Schools,

Subject.- Request for a copy of supplementary rules under Fundamental Rules 44 and 93.

Sir,

In reply to your Memorandum No.1607/201-1904, dated the 14th February 1922, I am directed to forward herewith a copy of the supplementary rules made under fundamental rules 44 and 93, I am to add that copies of all the supplementary rules which included these were sent to the address of the Chief Commissioner, Coorg, with this Department letter No.104-C.S.R. dated the 4th February 1922.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Under Secretary to the Government of India.

Serial No. 3.

Rules made by the Government of India under rules 44 and 93 of the fundamental rules, governing the drawing of compensatory allowances by officers under its administrative control or in a Chief Commissioner's Province.

1. Subject, in respect of house-rent allowance, to the provisions of rules 3 and 4, a compensatory allowance attached to a post will be drawn in full by the Government servant performing the duties of that post.

2. A compensatory allowance other than a house-rent allowance may be drawn up to a maximum period of four months by a Government servant who takes leave on average pay from the post to which the allowance is attached or is transferred therefrom for not more than four months to another post, as well as by the Government servant performing the duties of the post to which the allowance is attached ; provided that

(1) the authority sanctioning the leave or transfer, as the case may be, certifies that the Government servant is likely to return, on the expiry of his leave or his temporary duty, to the post to which the allowance is attached or to another post carrying a similar allowance ; and

(2) the Government servant certifies that he continues to incur the whole or a considerable part of the expense to meet which the allowance was granted.

3. A house-rent allowance may be drawn by a Government servant on leave or transfer in the circumstances specified in rule 2 ; provided that he certifies that his previous rate of expenditure for a house continues during his absence and that he places his house, free of rent, at the disposal of the Government servant, if any, who officiates in his post. The officiating Government servant cannot in such case draw the house-rent allowance attached to the post. If, however, the officiating Government servant, for a reason which a competent authority considers to be sufficient, refuses the accommodation placed at his disposal, he, and not the absent Government servant, will draw the allowance.

Note.—This rule does not apply to any Government servant admitted to the benefits of the Calcutta, Bombay or Rangoon House Allowance Scheme, in so far as it is inconsistent with the rules governing the scheme.

4. A Government servant of the Persian Section of the Indo-European Telegraph Department may draw house-rent allowance on the conditions specified in rule 3 for a period of one month after his permanent transfer to another station.

ances under the Fundamental Rules.

Sir,

With reference to your Memo No.1603/201-1904 Enc dated the 14th. instant, I have the honour to state in margin the several kinds of allowances drawn at present by the staff of the medical department in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore and to point that, them,

(1) Duty Allowance. Rs400/- to the Residency Surgeon, for the administrative charge of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospitals.

(2) Teaching Allowance. Rs. 50/- to the House Surgeon, Lady Curzon Hospital, for giving lectures to the Nurses who are trained at the Nursing School attached to the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospitals.

(3) Hospital Allowance. Rs. 30/- to the House Surgeon, Bowring Civil Hospital, for being in subordinate charge of the Bowring Civil Hospital.

(4) Special Allowance. Rs. 15/- to the Sub-Assistant Surgeon in charge of the X-ray Department.
Rs. 15/- to the Sub-Assistant Surgeon in charge the Bacteriological Laboratory.

(5) Local Allowance. Rs. 10/- to the Sub-Assistant Surgeons of the Bowring Civil Hospital, on account of the dearness of the locality.

(6) Ration Allowance. To the Nursing Staff of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Civil Hospitals.

(7) Uniform & Washing Allowance. To the Nursing Staff of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Civil Hospitals.

(1), and (3) may be classed as 'Special Pay' under the Fu mental Rules, as they are being drawn for a speci ad tion to the work.

Item (4). should be treated only as a compensatory lowance, even though it is a specific addition to the work, or this allowance is not declared to be a remunerative one items 1, 2 and 3.

Item (5). This allowance is granted to the sub assistant surgeons on account of the dearness of the locality. It resembles the Presidency Allowance drawn by the same class of Government servants when employed at Madras. This too is to be treated as a compensatory allowance other than house lowance, as it is not a remunerative one.

Item (6). This should be treated as a compensatory llowance other than house allowance for the reason it is ven for food.

Item (7). This is given to the Nursing Staff on count of upkeep of their uniform and washing purposes and allowance should also be treated as a compensatory allowance other than house allowance.

Subject.- Classification of local allowances.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No.5203/201-1904, dated the 24th June 1922, I am directed to convey the sanction of the Government of India to the local allowances drawn by officers under your control being classified as follows:-

	Designation.	Nature and amount of allowance.	Classification.
No 1 in the statement at P 58/A	(1) Assistant Commissioner of Excise.	House rent allowance Rs.60	House allowance.
No. 17-do.	(2) Sub-Assistant Inspector of Schools.	Local allowance Rs.35.	Compensatory allowance other than house allowance.
No. 20-do.	(3) House Surgeon, Lady Curzon Hospital.	Teaching allowance Rs.50	Special pay.
No. 22-do.	(4) Sub-Assistant Surgeon i/c X-Ray Deptt.	Special allowance Rs.15	Special pay.
No. 23-do.	(5) Sub-Assistant Surgeon i/c Bacteriological Laboratory.	Special allowance Rs.15	Special pay.
No 24-do.	(6) 3 Sub-Assistant Surgeons of the Bowring Hospital.	Local allowance of Rs.10 each.	Compensatory allowance other than house allowance.
No. 30-do.	(7) Sub-Assistant Surgeon, Isolation Hospital.	Temporary allowance Rs.25.	Special pay.

2. I am to point out that in items 3 and 4 in the statement forwarded with your letter under reply the officer concerned is an Assistant Superintendent of Excise and not an Assistant Inspector of Excise, and that the allowances shown under items 3 and 5 of the statement have already been classified as 'duty allowances' in Government of India, Commerce Department letter No.2204-Dg, dated the 13th March 1920.

Redesignation Correct-vide letter F.No. 97/316-D dt.

3. I am to add that allowances in items 3, 5, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15 19, 21 and 30 which have already been classed as 'duty or 'remunerative' fall automatically under the category of 'special pay', and that such allowances as conveyance allowance, Bicycle allowance, motor allowance, fixed travelling allowance (items 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 16, 18, 27, 28, 29 and 31) ration allowance and uniform and washing allowance (items 25 and 26), are 'compensatory allowances other than house allowance', and do not call for special orders.

I have the honour to be,

THE Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

The Auditor-General in India has stated that the Government of India have decided that the list of conveyances allowances in Appendix 26 of the Civil Service Regulations is still in force so far as it relates to Government servants under the administrative control of the Central Government and that the list will not be reproduced in the supplementary rules issued by the Governor General in Council. Instructions have consequently been issued for the incorporation of the items in the local manuals concerned: On examining the items relating to Bangalore, it has been found that certain posts for which conveyance allowances have been fixed in the appendix are now no longer in existence: A list of such posts is given below and I request that you will be so good as to state whether these items may be deleted from the appendix.
